

In decision procedure about an implementation or modernization of document system, quality and correct information is very important parameter that will lead to desired direction – rational and efficient system with minimal technical risk.

Our consultancy team includes experienced experts from digital and micrographic document systems from Germany, UK and other European and overseas countries, including Croatia where we already have a long history of continuous work on this demanding field.

Depends on the project our consultancy team will be formed on demand with priority to cover all necessary knowledge for best result possible.

Accumulated experience combined with active following of actual technologies allows us analyze of different variations to find the most efficient solution counting productivity and cost/benefit ratio.

Here we can provide all necessary research and testing in situations where there are no reliable models for evaluation.

The result of our consultancy service is quality processed customers inquiry with advice about optimal solution including projects and implementation supervision in case it is a part of the contract.

To use our services please contact us by email, fax or telephone with short description of the problem you would like to solve.

SU-SK-025/01.16.